

Ngā Pūmanawa o Te Arawa, tēnā koutou katoa

The University of Waikato and Te Arawa have a long-standing relationship woven across the decades in a tapestry of connections, and the University looks forward to hosting the iwi of Te Arawa at the new Tauranga Campus - to explore and renew strategic partnerships for research, development and education into the future.

E TE IWI O TE ARAWA, NAU MAI
HAERE MAI:

Wednesday, 19 August 2020

10am - 2pm

University of Waikato, Tauranga City

PROGRAMME

10am Welcome and morning tea

Kaumātua friendly campus tour.

WORKSHOP 1

- Strategic overview of the University's positioning in the Bay.
- Overview of University programmes and student supports. How are the people of Te Arawa engaging with tertiary education at Waikato University and how can this be strengthened? For strategic discussion.

12pm Lunch

WORKSHOP 2

- Lead University researchers will be in attendance to highlight the collaborative research opportunities across the diverse areas of aquaculture, geothermal, marine and fresh water science, management, leadership and development, education, digital strategy, and health.

2.30pm Kua mutu

TE KOTAHITANGA O
TE ARAWA WAKA
FISHERIES TRUST

TE ARAWA
FISHERIES

PLEASE RSVP

Chris Karamea Insley

Phone : +64 21 972782

Email : chris@tearawafisheries.maori.nz

Unite against

COVID-19

Level 2 Precautions will apply. For more information on Alert Level 2 & 3 go to www.covid19.govt.nz